To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to explain why our Corporation Annual Report is late; the business just changed owners in June, we were not aware that the report had not been previously filed until July 1, 1997 when we found the report in the previous owners files.

We apologize that the report was not made on time and ask for a waiver in the overdue fee due to the circumstances of neglect of the previous owner. We ask that the new owner is not penalized for the previous owner he was not made aware of the deadline or fee. Upon discovery of the report, Mr. Lowrey took immediate steps to rectify the situation.

If you have any further questions, please call me at 1-800-368-4075. Thank you and have a great day.

Sincerely,

Walton E. Lowrey
President
