Dear Sirs or Madam:

Enclosed please find our application for Profit Corporation Annual Report 2000. We would like to ask you to please accept it as regular at $150.00 filing fee since we never received the application for this year from your office as we usually do.

When you review our records you will find that we always file early. We think the problem might of have been that your office did not note the new mailing address on our 1999 application and may have sent it to the old address at any rate, we never received it and after reviewing our files noticed it and immediately requested it over the phone but never got it. We requested it again on 06-16-00 and now we have received it. We would appreciate it very much that you take this into consideration and also our previous promptness on all our filing and thus accept this at the regular fee.

Also please note that we never received our certification of status requested on and paid in our 1999 application.

Again, we appreciate your attention to our request.

Respectfully,

Ana L. Hernandez
