For luxury homebuyers in Tampa Bay, there are now more home buying options as Lennar is expanding its luxury brand WCI across the entire area. From waterfront homes in South Hillsborough County's Southshore Yacht Club and Manatee County's Sanctuary Cove to the family-friendly Estancia at Winegrass in Pasco County - WCI has the luxury home for you. For over 60 years, WCI has been known for creating a distinctive, luxury lifestyle for buyers around Florida, and Lennar is continuing that tradition in WCI communities, homebuyers can expect a high end home with excellent neighborhood amenities, not to mention a desirable location.

When you come home to a WCI community, you'll drive through impressive entryways to a home on a large home site with sophisticated architectural details both inside and out. The homes have open floorplans that can be perfect for large families, or for empty nesters who want to have fun with their grandchildren. The indoor outdoor living space offers the ultimate setting for relaxing with your family or entertaining guests.

WCI's eight new communities in the Tampa Bay area are:

Hillsborough County

- Southshore Yacht Club in Ruskin. The waterfront community has endless options for outdoor activities. If you buy a home on the water, you have the option to add a boat dock and can enjoy a ride on your boat in Tampa Bay. And no matter where you live in the community, you can also use the grill at the clubhouse. Spend time with your pets

An address is where your life really begins!
