Florida Citrus Sports Giving

Florida Citrus Sports is a charitable non-profit membership organization that benefits educational institutions (competing bowl teams), the Florida Citrus Sports Foundation and deserving national and community organizations.

Florida Citrus Sports membership and events, including the Capital One Florida Citrus Bowl, support the Foundation's Florida Citrus Sports Camp, a summer youth camp for economically disadvantaged middle school age children. The Foundation also endows several tuition scholarships at local higher education institutions for former camp graduates. Other initiatives have accounted for more than $1-million in local donations over the past decade.
