ABOUT US

SkyeTec is an indoor environmental consulting firm that provides third party assessments of building conditions pre-construction on. We have offered preventative moisture intrusion and quality assurance inspections to builders for last eight years, and have performed thousands of IEQ assessments. As a leader in quality assurance, we have assisted builders in reducing warranty costs, minimizing construction delays, and documenting safe construction practices for facilities through our third-party programs.

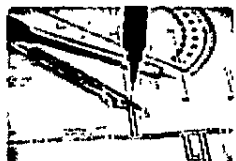

SkyeTec service offerings include diagnostic assessments, preventative programs, energy audits, wind mitigation certifications, and green consulting. Our comprehensive programs ensure that your buildings are healthy and sustainable.

We employ environmental and construction professionals with an array of qualifications and experience, including: Civil Engineers, Industrial Hygienists, General Contractors, MEP and Civil Engineers, LEED® APs, Professional Engineers, project managers and trade-specific experts.

SkyeTec is located at 9570 Regency Square Blvd. Suite 410, Jacksonville, FL 32225. Contact us at 1-866 SkyeTec.
