Abused children need a safe place to go and we, as a community, need to support such a place. Gulf Coast Kid's House will serve as a safe, non-threatening environment for children to talk about abuse issues.

The key concept behind Gulf Coast Kid's House is that an abused child only has to tell his or her experience of abuse one time to one person. Today, if a child is abused, he or she must repeat the abuse experience at numerous agencies. At Gulf Coast Kid's House, a child tells his or her experience one time to one child advocate, ensuring a prompt response.

Gulf Coast Kid's House recognizes and appreciates each of our donors. Each gift is meaningful when given from one's heart and from the best of one's unique ability. Each gift, separate and when joined with others, will help us maintain the state-of-the-art Marilyn Kapner Levin Center for Children's Advocacy and Child Abuse Prevention.

Cash - usually in the form of a check or credit card - is the most common form for charitable gifts.

Gifts of property other than cash such as real estate, collectibles, personal property, securities including mutual funds, bonds, notes and mortgages.

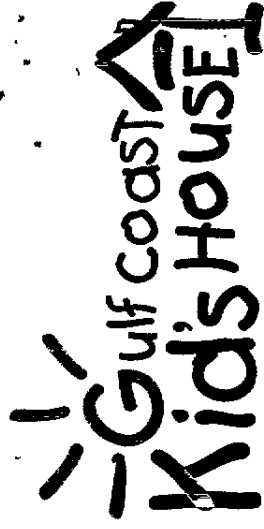

Gifts through an individual estate, wills, living trusts, life insurance, charitable remainder trusts and retirement plans.

Charitable gifts can complement your personal and financial goals. Your legal or financial advisor can advise you on how such gifts may help you accomplish personal planning objectives in ways that benefit you, your loved ones and your charitable interests.

Gulf Coast Kid's House is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization. A copy of the official registration and financial information may be obtained from the Division of Consumer Services by calling 1 (800) HELP-FLA. Registration does not imply endorsement, approval or recommendation by the State.
