PROVIDING CARE TO EVERYONE WITH OUR HIGHEST ETHICAL AND FINANCIAL COMMITMENT.

Good Shepherd Hospice Mission Statement

The mission of Good Shepherd Hospice is to provide quality palliative care and relieve the suffering of those in our communities affected by life-limiting illnesses and end-of-life issues, maintaining the highest ethical standards, so all may live as fully and comfortably as possible.

Good Shepherd Hospice Goes Above and Beyond

Medicare sets certain basic minimums that every hospice provider must meet. And we all do. The real question is what each hospice does to go above and beyond the minimum care requirements set by Medicare.

At Good Shepherd Hospice, we go way beyond those basic hospice requirements to identify and meet the specific needs of each patient and family—from extra homelike touches in our three hospice houses to the comprehensive bereavement care we offer to families long after their loved one has died.

beyond the basic hospice requirements.

As a Not-for-Profit Provider, Good Shepherd Hospice...

At Good Shepherd Hospice, we never deny services to anyone due to financial hardship. Patients receive services wherever they call home—in a primary residence, assisted living facility, skilled nursing home, hospice house or hospital.

Good Shepherd Hospice accepts Medicare, Medicaid, Tricare and most private insurances. Under Medicare, Medicaid and Tricare, hospice is an all-inclusive benefit—all services, medications, home medical equipment and medical supplies related to the patient's illness are covered.

Where are the Good Shepherd Hospice Houses?

Good Shepherd Hospice Houses are conveniently located in Auburndale, Lakeland and Sebring.

What Type of Staff Members are at the Hospice Houses?

Our hospice nurses and aides staff the hospice houses 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. The patient's personal physician is encouraged, but not required to visit and provide care. As in all Good Shepherd Hospice settings, our hospice physicians, nurse practitioners, social workers, dietary personnel, chaplains and trained volunteers are readily available to provide support to patients and their loved ones. Our professional staff provides quality clinical care, pain control, symptom management and psychosocial and spiritual support.

control, symptom management and psychosocial and spiritual support.

Who Pays for Services Provided at the Hospice Houses?

Under the hospice benefit, Good Shepherd Hospice accepts reimbursement from Medicare or Medicaid, as well as most private insurance plans for the general inpatient level of care.

How are the Facilities Different?

Compassion and comfort for the patient and their loved ones are of utmost importance. Our hospice houses are designed with most of the amenities that one would find in your own home. Family and friends may visit anytime and stay overnight. There is a kitchenette and dining area along with on-site laundry for use by families and guests.
