13 Seize the day with the wonderful 150-foot superyacht, Carpe Diem II, manufactured by Trinity Yachts. Built in 2002 and refitted in 2011, Carpe Diem II presents charm, warmth and elegance. In other words everything one would expect in a yacht of this caliber. She combines traditional elegance reflected in extensive mahogany furnishings complemented with contemporary furnishings, soft furnishings and unique lighting. This super yacht has been lavishly maintained and upgraded by her fastidious and generous owner. This tri-deck, semi-displacement motor yacht is designed to carry 10 guests in ultimate luxury occupying five staterooms, including a full beam master suite that is impeccably finished with rich raised mahogany panels with inset silk. The on-deck suite includes a study, seating area, vanity and huge walk-in closets. Crystal and nickel wall sconces and silk window coverings complement the elegant palette. His and hers bathrooms are finished in stunning Italian marble. Four ...

SUPERYACHTS CONTINUE TO FUEL EUROPEAN YACHT BROKERAGE SALES

12 Superyacht sales continue to drive improved sales figures for European brokerages through the first nine months of 2014, with the number of boats sold increasing by eight percent while the total price paid rose a whopping 31 percent. Almost 90 percent of the overall increase came from superyachts over 80 feet in length. Unit sales in this segment rose 25 percent to 131 yachts with total price increasing 68 percent to $91.2 million. Other segments were less robust but still showed increases over 2013. Sales of yachts from 55 feet to 79 feet rose 11 percent while sales of mid size yachts from 26 to 45 feet grew by four percent. Sales of small boat from 46 to 55 feet showed better figures with an increase of 18 percent in units sold and average prices remaining level. The power section realized a 14 percent increase in units sold, tied to a 40 percent increase in total sales value. Sailing yachts had a minimal unit increase although total value increased nine percent. 4Yacht is a ...
