Conversations that Matter

A WOMAN'S FORUM: EXPLORING WOMEN'S CANCERS (April 4)

Cancer affects about 98,000 women each year, and equally staggering is the fact that 70 percent of ovarian cancers reach Stage III or IV before they're even diagnosed. Scary stats, to say the least.

A special, two-hour forum, April 4, starts at 9:30 a.m., and tackles the serious topic of Women's Cancers with three experts in the field: Dr. Charles Dunton, a gynecologic oncologist (and Club member); Dr. Jill O'Donnell-Tormey, from the Cancer Research Institute; and Dr. Christina DuPree, from Indian River Medical Center. Kate Parra, from our Fitness Center, joins the group with an overview of the Club's Cancer Exercise Program.

O'Donnell-Tormey is the CEO and director of scientific affairs at the Cancer Research Institute, which is the global leader in supporting and coordinating research aimed at harnessing the immune system's power to conquer all cancers. She will share insight into some of this exciting and promising research.

Topics covered include: gynecological cancer prevention and treatment; cervical cancer - vaccines and screening; uterine cancer - symptoms and treatment; breast cancer - new screening guidelines; and minimally-invasive surgery for gynecology - robots. After the presentation, there will be small group breakout sessions.

Cost: $10. Register through the Club's website, or call 234-3011.

"MEN IN GREEN"

by Michael Bamberger

Sometimes a book comes along that truly captures the spirit of its subject. The author, a former senior writer at Sports Illustrated, does exactly that. Bamberger, along with former PGA tour player Mike Donald, embark on an American odyssey to meet and touch the lives of a past generation of golf's living legends. . . as well as some colorful personal greats. Their travels take them from private chats with Arnold Palmer, to the 12th green at Augusta National, to a trailer park in North California. It's an candid, nostalgic and intimate portrait of golf's greatest generation.

REVIEWER: MARK MULVOY

Our very own Mark Mulvoy has seen many of golf's greatest players and moments up close during his 30+ years at Sports Illustrated. After retiring from the magazine, he played on the Senior Amateur Tour, and is still heavily involved. He and his wife, Trish, have been seasonal residents here since 1990. It was Mark's vision and enthusiasm that culminated in John's Island Club hosting the extremely successful 2015 U.S. Mid-Amateur Tournament this past October.

APRIL 19

James T. Ueltschi - Cofounder & Chairman of HelpMeSee

"20 Million Poor Blind Can be Sighted in Less than 5 Minutes"

Ueltschi reviews the worldwide cataract burden, the genesis of HelpMeSee, the connection to aviation training, the training systems utilized, what has been accomplished and what remains to be done.

Five O'clock Hour proceedings are strictly off the record. No recordings, no reporting. Check in at table before entering Ballroom. Advanced reservations help speed up the check-in process. Outside guests must be registered at the gate with John's Island Security.

Membership FAQs

Q: My brother and sister-in-law will be staying in our home. Can they sign our account number to use the Club?

A: Only immediate family members -- your parents, children and their spouses, and grandchildren and their spouses -- may do so. It is against Club rules for your account number to be used by anyone else.

Q: My best friend from up north has been here before. Can he use the same guest account number that he used then?

A: Think of guest account numbers as being for a one-time visit. They are deactivated after guests leave. Sometimes, the same number can be re-assigned, but it's also possible that the number has been reassigned. You must re-sponsor your guests for each visit to John's Island Club. Simply complete the online form via the Club's website, or come into the Membership Office and complete the form there.

SAVE THE DATE!

The 2016 "Invite Your Friends Weekend" is November 3-6. This gives you plenty of time to ask your friends to taste the John's Island Club lifestyle while creating memorable moments with you.

Activities & Bridge

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

Duplicate bridge adds a twist to the popular card game. Partners play two or three hands at each table, which are then played by everyone else. When everyone has played all hands, the different contracts are compared. John's Island Club offers duplicate bridge two days each week in the Golf Club.

Wednesdays (12:30 - 4 p.m.) -- This afternoon session is not for basic beginners. Bring your favorite partner, but if you don't have a partner and would like one, contact Margaret Eggleston at (772) 231-9175.

Thursdays (5 - 7:30 p.m.) -- ACBL Certified Instructor Bob Smith leads this evening group which is for players of all skill levels.

The cost for both sessions of duplicate bridge will be determined.

Reservations are strongly encouraged to ensure an adequate number of tables are set up for each session. Call (772) 234-3011.

WINEMAKER'S DINNER

What: Winemaker's Dinner
When: April 19, 6 p.m.
Where: Golf Club
Cost: $95 per person
Guest speaker:
 Roger Louer, Calistoga Cellars

This month's Winemaker's Dinner brings California's Napa Valley to John's Island Club to highlight the wines of Calistoga Cellars, April 19. Roger Louer, the managing partner at the Calistoga Cellars will share his secrets and passion behind the winery.

Calistoga Cellars makes sensational award-winning wines and is not the typical story of a winemaker who abandons the rat race to settle into an earth-bound lifestyle in a leafy little wine country hamlet. Calistoga Cellars instead is owned primarily by ambitious professionals who keep their day jobs, but contribute immeasurably to the winery's success.

Success for this winery comes more from the passionate contributions of the owners who act as ambassadors for business development and brand marketing among distributors, retailers, and restaurants in their own backyards. It is this constant human touch that's so crucial to a winery's success but often too expensive and exhausting for upstart wineries to implement year-round.

Under the artisanal direction of winemaker Barry Gnekow, and with fruit sources from its estate vineyards, Calistoga Cellars makes complex yet elegant Cabernet, Merlot, Zinfandel, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc.

*Reservations are a must for the Winemaker's Dinner.
 Call (772) 234-3011.*

EASTER FUN

Easter at John's Island Club is a two-day family affair loaded with fun, magic and mouth-watering food.

A continental breakfast is served starting at 8:30 a.m. to prime the young ones for the Easter egg hunt that starts promptly at 9 a.m. (Don't forget to bring your favorite Easter basket!) There will also be face painting, multiple bounce houses (Who says you have to be a kid to enjoy them?) and a magic show. The Easter Bunny is also expected to drop by.

The cost for all this morning filled with Easter fun? Absolutely nothing.

Then on Easter Sunday, April 16, from noon to 8:30 p.m., bring your appetite to the Easter Buffet in the Golf Club. Cost is $57 for ages 11 and up; and $28.50 for ages 5 - 10. Children four and under eat free. Jacket and tie are required for gentlemen. Call (772) 234-3011 for reservations.

H. Wayne Huizenga
Entrepreneur

"Being at the Right Place at the Right Time"

A story on good luck and timing. Huizenga is reportedly the only person in history to build three Fortune 1000 companies practically from scratch.

He started Waste Management Inc., with a single garbage truck, driving from 2:30 a.m. to noon and then spent the rest of the day knocking on doors to drum up new business. His company now is the largest waste disposal company in the country. He started Blockbuster in a similar fashion and most recently, started a new approach to shopping for cars: AutoNation.

He owns the Miami Dolphins (and the home stadium in which they play), and is the former owner of the 1997 World Series Champion Florida Marlins and NHL Panthers.

It's been said that Huizenga attributes his success to gut instinct and believing in his heart, even when others believe it won't work.

April 11
Treasure Coasters Barbershop Chorus & Platinum Coast Chorus of the Sweet Adelines International

"An Evening of Barbershop Harmony"

Sit back and enjoy the smooth harmony of these two local performance groups.

The all-male Treasure Coasters Barbershop Chorus performs frequently in the area at various events. Expect to hear some familiar songs at this special Five O'clock Hour.

Also performing is the Platinum Coast Chorus of Sweet Adelines International, the Melbourne-based chapter of the women-only singing organization that was founded in 1945. SERVICE LEAGUE NEWS

Annual Fundraiser -- The sold-out Fab Four fundraiser proved to be a wonderful success. Co-chairs Jeanne Manley and Nancy Shoemate, their hard working committee, and the many volunteers deserve a recognition for making this a party to remember. Net proceeds from the event will be used for grants for community charities.

Got to have a yellow submarine!

Nancy Shoemate and Jean Manley ham it up with The Fab Four and "Ed Sullivan" before the sold-out performance. The "really big shoe" fundraiser was an immense success.

BOOK REVIEW

"The Widow of the South"

by Robert Hicks

April 5, 5 p.m.
in the Golf Club

Reviewer: Dr. Ken Callahan

Author Robert Hicks brilliantly blends fact and fiction to capture the end of an era, when the vast madness of war and the courage of a remarkable woman unrolls against a backdrop of the Civil War.

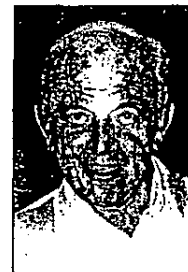

Carrie McGavock is a widow whose Carnton Plantation in Franklin, Tennessee saw one of the bloodiest battles of the war with 9,200 casualties. Her home was commandeered by the Confederate Army for use as a hospital, and when the soldiers died, they were buried near the plantation. She corresponds
