BEST OF SRQ Local

Our dedicated readers voted for their favorites in this year's Best of SRQ Local Readers Competition in record numbers. The new categories were a hit, especially Best Personal Trainer, Best Gallery, Best Salon and Best Farmers Market. Every year, I just adore the special stories our readers share with us on how they made their "best local" selection. Their cozy details, memories of special meals shared with loved ones and prized shopping trophies bring us closer to appreciating the treasure trove of local experiences we have come to adore—from restaurants to our very own No. 1 beach, Siesta Key Beach. One of our readers takes out-of-town visitors to Station 400 for bites they can't get anywhere else. As he writes, "The stuffed French toast contains the trifecta of apple, cranberry and almond. Then to top it off with something so awesome that even California has outlawed it, foie gras, and you have my attention. This screams one-of-a-kind, which is as amazing as you can hope to get for the first meal of the day." I admit to being a fellow breakfast junkie which renders me utterly sympathetic to the deep crushes that develop on our favorite morning haunts. Pastry Art is once again the winner for Best Local Coffee. In fact, one of our readers describes their delicious vanilla latté, which I have added to my must-try list as accompaniment to a leisurely Saturday morning at the Sarasota Farmers Market. For those of you who voted for not-so-local coffee: while I empathize with your Starbucks addiction, you must get out and sip some of the solid local coffee being brewed in our own backyard before next year's competition gets underway. Always a treat to read, this year's Best of SRQ Local feature will steer you onto backroads and byways promising adventure. Enjoy!
