For more than 19 years, The Pride Center has provided a welcoming, safe space—an inclusive home—that celebrates, nurtures and empowers the LGBTQ communities and our friends and neighbors in South Florida. The Pride Center's programs and services meet the distinct socio-economic, health, spiritual, and safety needs of the LGBT community.

We host more than 60 regularly-meeting groups each month. Support, social and educational groups focus on women, Seniors, youth, men, transgender, recovery, health, the arts, athletics, spirituality, games and more. More than 17,000 adults and youth attend activities at the Center each year. Outreach activities over the past year directly impacted 26,262 residents and visitors to South Florida. The Pride Center is a major site for HIV testing and prevention, education and counseling. It also offers holistic and comprehensive support programs for persons living with HIV/AIDS, including the nationally acclaimed PALS Project.

Stop in and learn about all we do: a community Flea Market, Senior exercise classes, Bingo, art gallery openings, women's speaker series, Coffee and Conversation gatherings, music events and adult education opportunities through Pride University, including ballroom dancing and conversational Spanish classes. Activities we've organized and hosted this year include: Breast Fest; Happy Hiney Health; Latino HIV/AIDS Leadership Summit; Kwanzaa Celebration; Women's MusicFest; Family Health Fair; Women's Spirituality Conference; Male on Male Sexual Assault Seminar; Sex Esteem workshop; Black Gay Pride; LGBTQ Youth Halloween Dance; Transgender Health Symposium; Senior Health Expo and many more.

The Pride Center owns six acres of property with 30,000 square feet of office space in Wilton Manors. As a cornerstone in the advancement of LGBTQI communities locally and beyond, Equality Park provides a home for individuals, programs and services, as well as synergy among organizations. Equality Park further establishes the Pride Center as a leader in LGBTQ unity, inclusiveness and pride.
