EQUALITY FLORIDA

WINNING EQUALITY

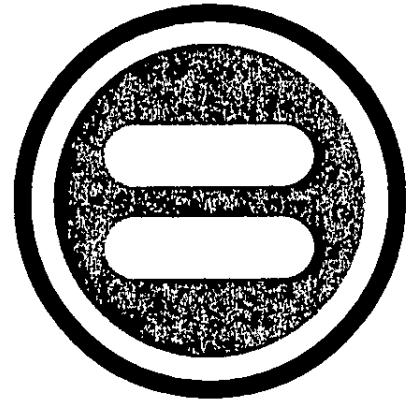

WHO WE ARE

Equality Florida is the largest civil rights organization dedicated to securing full equality for Florida's lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) community.

Through lobbying, grassroots organizing, education, and coalition building, we are changing Florida so that no one suffers harassment or discrimination on the basis of their sexual orientation or gender identity.

Equality Florida formed in 1997 as Governor Jeb Bush took office and Florida's state government made a hard turn to the right. In an era of setbacks for progressive causes, Equality Florida has defeated every piece of anti-LGBT legislation filed in Tallahassee for 13 years in a row. These bills included efforts to: overturn all local anti-discrimination policies, repeal all safe schools policies, expand Florida's anti-gay adoption ban, and prohibit domestic partnership benefits and protections.

HOW WE'RE WINNING EQUALITY

Because Equality Florida has always existed in a hostile political climate, we know how to carve our victories despite strong opposition.

In addition to our work in Tallahassee, we work with our local partners, providing resources and helping to build coalitions that have passed pro-equality laws across the state.

We defend against bad bills and introduce pro-LGBT legislation every single year. Our efforts continue to expand support for our issues across party lines.

For 8 years, we led a broad-based coalition that secured the 2008 passage of the Jeffrey Johnston Stand Up for All Students Act, an anti-bullying law that has resulted in protections from anti-LGBT bullying and harassment for students all across the state.

Equality Florida played a critical role in bringing an end to Florida's 33-year-old anti-gay adoption ban. In addition to years of public education on the harm caused by the ban, we successfully lobbied the Governor and the Department of Children and Families to immediately end enforcement of the ban and not pursue an appeal to the Supreme Court once the ban was ruled unconstitutional on September 22, 2010.

Under our watch, Florida has led the southeastern United States in passing over 55 local policies outlawing discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity, banning harassment of LGBT students, and providing domestic partnership benefits to our families. We also lead the region in electing LGBT candidates with 25 openly LGBT officials elected in Florida as of November 2010.

Through our continuous public education campaigns, we are winning the battle of public opinion with a strong majority of Floridians now support nearly every one of our pro-equality issues.

We invite you to take a look at the following pages of Winning Equality and see how prominently Florida stands on the national stage of LGBT equality. Your support makes every one of these victories possible.

RECENT VICTORIES

- Equality Florida played a critical role in bringing an end to Florida's 33-year-old anti-gay adoption ban. In addition to years of public education on the harm caused by the ban, we successfully lobbied the Governor and the Department of Children and Families to immediately end enforcement of the ban and not pursue an appeal to the Supreme Court once the ban was ruled unconstitutional on September 22, 2010.
- We played a major role in electing Gainesville Mayor Craig Lowe, the first out gay mayor of a North Florida city. The election's razor-thin margin, 42 votes, meant that our fundraising, staffing and volunteer organizing efforts made the critical difference.
- Equality Florida spearheaded a successful effort to add domestic partnership benefits in the City of Kissimmee.
- Equality Florida helped lead a coalition effort to pass a human rights ordinance in Leon County that includes sexual orientation and gender identity. The county is home to our state capital, Tallahassee.
- We continued our 13 year streak of defeating every single piece of anti-gay legislation that has been introduced since Equality Florida was formed. This year we worked to remove language from a bill that would have restricted tax incentives to film companies for films that portrayed only "traditional families."
- We broke 33 years of silence on Florida's notorious anti-gay adoption ban with simultaneous amendments on the floor of the House of Representatives and Senate challenging the adoption ban. Not one legislators stood to defend the ban.
- We launched Equality Means Business, a project aimed at spotlighting and increasing the number of Florida employers with LGBT-inclusive anti-discrimination policies. In only it's first year, six Fortune 500 companies have joined the advisory board. Visit EqualityMeansBusiness.org.

- Passed 15 new domestic partnership, anti-discrimination, and safe schools' policies in cities and counties across Florida.
- Soundly defeated an anti-gay campaign to remove sexual orientation and gender identity from Gainesville's human rights ordinance.
- Elected 75% of Equality Florida Action PAC's endorsed champions - including Steve Kornell, the first openly gay City Council member in St. Petersburg, our state's 4th largest city.
- Ensured that a bipartisan majority of Florida's U.S. Representatives voted for the Matthew Shepard / James Byrd Jr. Hate Crimes Act - the first pro-LGBT federal law in our nation's history.

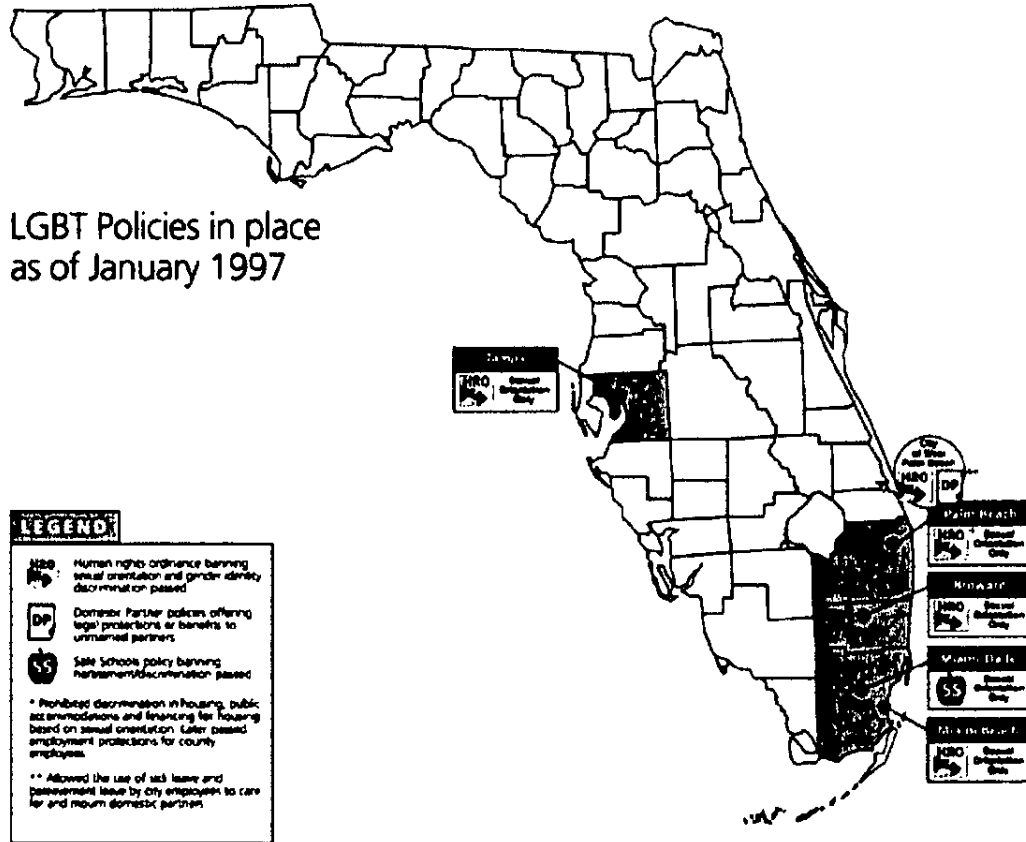

- Fought an anti-LGBT attacks by challenging Bujr Banton's homophobic concert tour of Florida and staging massive protests of NBC in Tampa for airing anti-gay television programming.

- We passed the Jeffrey Johnston Stand Up for All Students Act, an anti-bullying law that has resulted in protections from anti-LGBT bullying and harassment for students all across the state.
- Passed 18 local domestic partnership, safe schools, and anti-discrimination ordinances.
- Elected 80% of Equality Florida Action PAC's 30 endorsed candidates to office including five new openly-LGBT candidates. Plus, we re-elected 100% of our endorsed champions in Tallahassee, including all of those targeted by the far-right extremists.
- Defeated an amendment that would have created enormous obstacles to overseas adoptions by lesbian and gay Floridians.

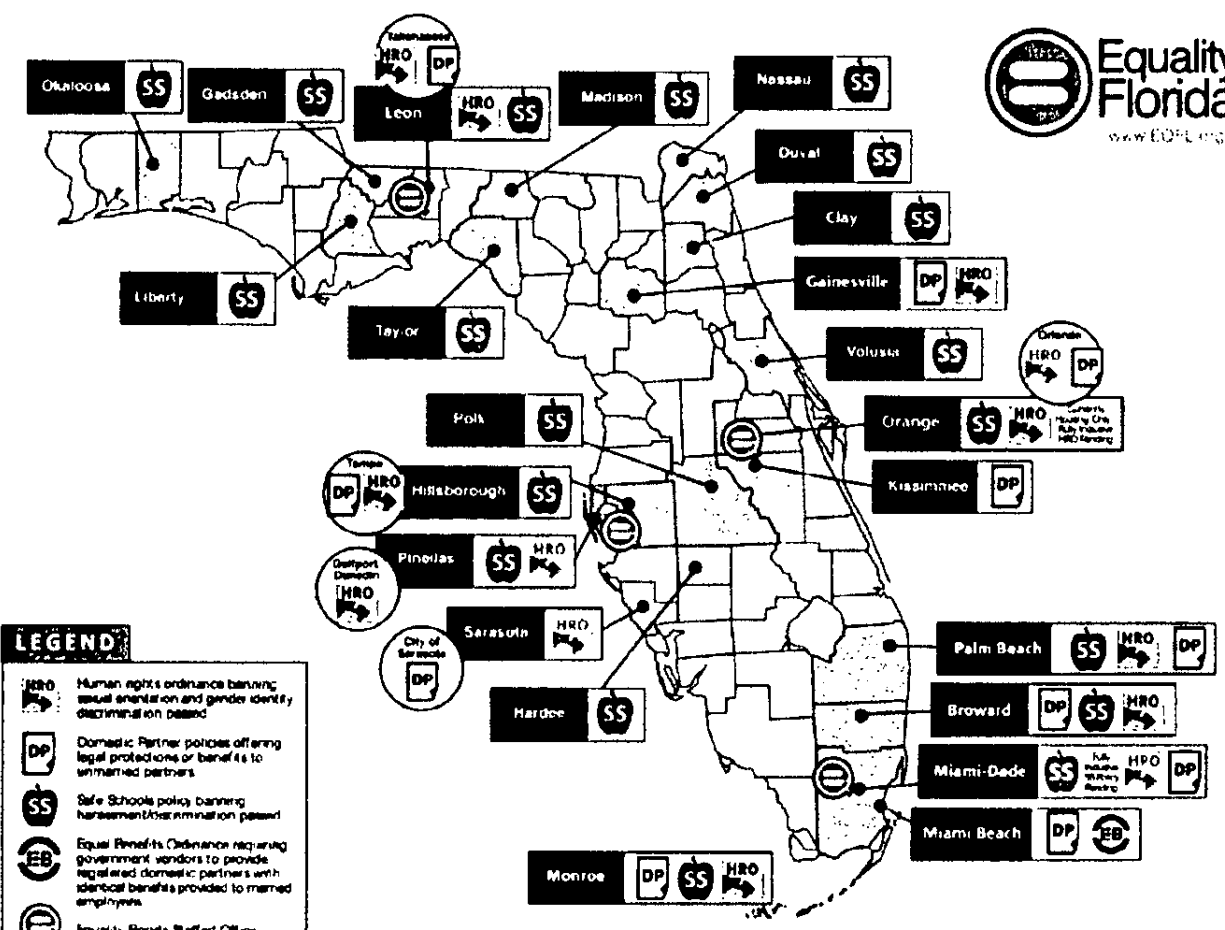

THEN

Equality Florida formed in 1997 out of a successful effort to stop anti-LGBT extremists in their attempt to repeal Tampa's sexual orientation inclusive human rights ordinance. This map demonstrates the local policies that were in place prior to Equality Florida's existence. In addition to these local policies, the statewide hate crimes law included sexual orientation protections.

NOW

Statewide victories are built on successes at the local level. Equality Florida leads grassroots efforts and we support those of our local partners in cities and counties across Florida to win protections for our community and to defeat anti-gay initiatives. We measure the effectiveness of everything we do by whether it strengthens local organizing. Here is a sample of some local successes in Florida.

LEGEND

- Human rights ordinance banning sexual orientation and gender identity discrimination passed
- Domestic Partner policies offering legal protections or benefits to unmarried partners
- Safe Schools policy banning harassment/discrimination passed
- Equal Benefits Ordinance requiring government vendors to provide registered domestic partners with identical benefits provided to married employees
- Equality Florida Staffed Office

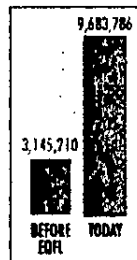

Policies include protections for sexual orientation only.

Current as of November 15, 2010 - with more victories coming every month!
 Where a county-wide ordinance provides protections, individual city policies have not been listed

OUTLAWING DISCRIMINATION

Florida has passed 25 city and county ordinances banning discrimination based on sexual orientation and/or gender identity and expression.

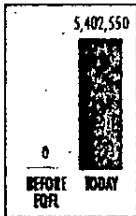

9,683,786 Floridians are protected from discrimination based on sexual orientation. Florida ranks 4th in the nation, behind California, New York and Illinois, in the number of people protected from discrimination based on sexual orientation.

Number of Floridians protected from discrimination based on sexual orientation

5,402,550 Floridians protected from discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity and expression. Florida ranks 5th in the nation, behind California, Illinois, New Jersey, and Washington, in the number of people protected from discrimination based on gender identity and expression.

Number of Floridians protected from discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity

STOPPING HATE VIOLENCE

Florida law provides increased penalties for hate crimes based on sexual orientation and has been interpreted to include hate crimes targeting the transgender community as well.*

During 2009, Equality Florida worked to ensure that a majority of Florida's representatives in Congress voted to pass the Matthew Shepard / James Byrd Jr. Hate Crimes Prevention Act - the first federal protections for the LGBT community. Florida ranks 4th in the nation, behind California, New York and Texas, in the number of people protected by state hate crimes laws.

Adding explicit protections for gender identity and expression to our state hate crimes statute continues to be a priority.*

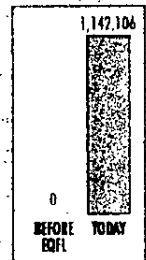

PROTECTING LGBT STUDENTS

Florida protects more students from anti-LGBT bullying than any other state except California and New York. Eighteen Florida school districts ban harassment and bullying based on sexual orientation and fourteen also ban bullying based on gender identity and expression. Equality Florida also runs the Florida Gay Straight Alliance (GSA) Network, a training and support network for LGBT student. Our Florida GSA Network has been recognized as the nation's fastest growing state network with over 110 GSA clubs across Florida.

1,676,029 students are protected from bullying based on sexual orientation. Florida ranks 4th in the nation, behind California, New York and Illinois, in the number of students protected.

1,142,106 students are protected from bullying based on gender identity and expression. Florida ranks 6th in the nation, behind California, New York, Illinois, North Carolina and New Jersey, in the number of students protected.

SHIFTING PUBLIC OPINION

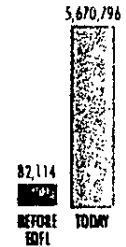

Equality Florida works every day to win the hearts and minds of all Floridians in our march toward full equality.

We coordinate campaigns with local leaders in efforts to pass ordinances, oppose anti-gay ballot measures and win critical elections. We galvanize the media around stories like Attorney General Bill McCullom's outrageous payments to anti-gay George Rekers, who was later caught with a male escort. We bring communities together for discussions and town hall meetings on issues like racism, homophobia, freedom of speech and LGBT family recognition. We work to ensure fair and accurate coverage in the media.

WINNING DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIP RIGHTS

There are 11 Florida cities and counties that provide domestic partnership benefits either through DP registries or public employee benefit programs. These programs reach 1 out of every 3 Floridians.

Number of Floridians with access to Domestic Partnerships

5,670,796 Floridians have access to domestic partnership benefits and protections through their city or county government (and millions more have access through their employers).

Florida ranks 8th in the nation in the number of LGBT people living in communities that recognize domestic partnerships, behind California, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Washington, and Maryland.

ELECTING PRO-EQUALITY CHAMPIONS

Equality Florida Supporters - 135,000

Pro-LGBT Voter File - 350,000

Nearly everything we fight for depends on the election of fair-minded politicians. We have built the largest voter file ever assembled to mobilize the LGBT vote in Florida - over 350,000 pro-equality voters. Every election cycle, we screen thousands of candidates and distribute hundreds of thousands of voters' guides to ensure our community and our allies are informed and turn out to vote.

Additionally, Equality Florida Action PAC works to elect out LGBT candidates and politicians who champion LGBT equality. Number of LGBT Elected officials in Florida - 25. The most in the south and 6th highest in the nation.

Data used in this report is current as of November 15, 2010.

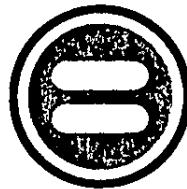

HISTORIC HIGHLIGHTS

Some victories stand out above the rest. Here's a list of some of our proudest victories on behalf of Florida's LGBT and allied community...

- 2010: Equality Florida played a critical role in bringing an end to Florida's 33-year-old anti-gay adoption ban. In addition to years of public education on the harm caused by the ban, we successfully lobbied the Governor and the Department of Children and Families to immediately end enforcement of the ban and not pursue an appeal to the Supreme Court once the ban was ruled "unconstitutional" on September 22, 2010.
- 2010: Our Equality Florida Action PAC played a vital role in electing Gainesville Mayor Craig Lowe, the first out gay mayor of a North Florida city. Craig won by a 42-vote margin and Equality Florida was on the ground for months helping raise money, organizing volunteers, and getting out the vote.
- 2009: Equality Florida soundly defeated an anti-LGBT campaign to remove sexual orientation and gender identity from Gainesville's human rights ordinance.
- 2008: Equality Florida passed the Jeffrey Johnston Stand Up for All Students Act, an anti-bullying law that has resulted in protections from anti-LGBT bullying and harassment for students across the state.

- 1998: Equality Florida successfully lobbied Darden Industries, Inc., parent company of Olive Garden and Red Lobster restaurants, to add sexual orientation protections to their non-discrimination policy.
- 1998 to present: Equality Florida has provided a voice for Florida's LGBT community during Legislative Session in Tallahassee every year since our founding.
