If you have a medical emergency please call 911

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, hours of operation may vary.

To keep our patients and employees safe, and in accordance with our safety precautions, we are only allowing a certain number of patients at a time inside our urgent care centers. Once we reach capacity, we may ask you to wait outside until it is safe to enter.

While Baptist Health Urgent Care centers are providing various types of COVID-19 testing, a medical evaluation must first be performed to determine the best testing option for you. To learn more, visit Baptisthealth.net/CovidTest.

Additionally, The COVID-19 vaccine is not available at any urgent care location or primary care doctor's office. Visit BaptistHealth.net/Vaccine for the most updated information on COVID-19 vaccines.
