Dear Nanette:

In response to your letter dated February 25, 2014, please note that the applicant accepts your amendment/correction of services listed in class "35", as originally filed, to class "36," resulting in the following description of services:

DOG RESCUE & BOARDING under class 43, FUNDRAISING under class 36, and PET ADOPTION under class 45.

Accordingly, we, respectfully, ask that you proceed with the filing of the trademark application.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if further clarification is needed.

Very truly yours,

100 + Abandoned Dogs of the Everglades

Rescuing, Reviving & Re-homing the Lost & Forgotten Ones

Right now, hundreds of abandoned dogs are roaming the Everglades of South Florida, hungry, thirsty, injured, sick, pregnant and more. They have been dumped there by their previous owners, often after being neglected and abused for years. These poor, lost souls are left to survive in the harshest of conditions. They battle extreme heat and dehydration, endure mosquito attacks and tick infestations, suffer from heartworm and mange, dodge speeding cars, and fight off poisonous snakes, alligators and other wild animals.

Our mission is to rescue them, bring them back to health, and show them that not all humans are bad, and love and a warm bed are just around the corner. Beyond that, we work to raise awareness about this brutal reality happening right in our community, with the hope that our message will result in alternative solutions and more responsible and humane decisions by pet owners. We are a volunteer-only, 501(c)3 organization, fully dependent on our support community to fund our rescues and vet bills for these desperate pups. Please help us make a difference by donating, adopting, fostering and being a voice for these helpless animals!!
