A Labor of Love

RIGHT NOW there is an epidemic of homeless, neglected and abused dogs throughout South Florida. Whether abandoned in the Everglades, owner surrendered to a high kill shelter, left to die in a vacant home or strays running the streets, these animals have been abandoned by the humans that were supposed to care for them. Since September 2011, 100+ ABANDONED DOGS OF EVERGLADES FLORIDA has rescued over 4000 animals in the Everglades area (Florida City, Homestead, and Redlands), inner cities and the surrounding areas of SE Florida.

OUR MISSION is to rescue them, bring them back to health, show them that not all humans are bad, and that love and a warm bed are just around the corner.

We are known for taking in the most critical cases, the pregnant mamas, the newborn puppies, the seniors, the sick and the frail that most organizations will

"Together we can bring change for the future of our animals that have no voice and no house of protection. This is only the beginning. Won't you join us?"

- Amy Roman / Founder and President

All of our adoptable dogs are listed below.
Our dogs have been vetted, spayed/neutered,
vaccinated and microchipped.
Puppies do require a series of booster vaccines.
The rescue covers all vaccines until the day of adoption. Future vaccines are the responsibility of the adopter. If they are too young to be spayed / neutered when adopted, please contact the rescue at 5 months old and we will cover the costs at our veterinarian's office.
