A South African Legacy

devine

For: The caring gift giver, avid reader, philanthropist, civic supporter, history buff, tourist, collector and the curious - a book for everyone.

A unique focus on the towns of Johannesburg, Soweto, and South Africa's rural areas and its people through the transitional 1980's.

The project goal is to assist the children in the communities of South Africa, where the need for the basic essentials are the greatest, such as food, water, clothing, and learning materials.

"South Africa is a beacon to the world of how a nation can have a peaceful power shift without war and bloodshed. The tribal nations and communities of South Africa have a history, which is anchored in tradition. Since the dawn of man, they have struggled to evolve within the ever changing global climate. Their stories need to be told for their children to remember and value their heritage..." - Troy Devine
