BUILDING TRUST

ZOM has an established relationship with numerous private and institutional investors. Since 1977 our investment portfolio has grown from $14 million to over $1 billion in equity, with a 100% return on investment. The equity and debt capital invested in ZOM are ultimately to be used in a cash flow and income generating investment portfolio.

In addition to its U.S. equity portfolio, ZOM has a long history of equity investment in Europe. Since 1977, ZOM has invested in over 100 European companies, with a 100% return on investment. ZOM's investment portfolio is managed by ZOM Capital Management, a subsidiary of ZOM. ZOM Capital Management is a leading provider of investment management services to institutional investors.

ABOUT ZOM

ZOM was founded in 1977 by David P. Zeman, a South Carolina entrepreneur who founded ZOM to meet the needs of the South Carolina real estate market. ZOM's first projects were residential developments. The company has since expanded its focus to include commercial, industrial, and retail projects.

The Company's focus on multi-family development continues, and in 1992, ZOM entered the multi-family development market in the Southeast. Through the acquisition of ZOM's assets and the addition of new projects in the Southeast, ZOM has established a strong presence in the multi-family market. ZOM's current projects include the following: St. Petersburg, Tampa, Miami, and Fort Lauderdale. In 2011, ZOM expanded its geographic focus to include Florida and was selected as 2011's leading multi-family development firm in Florida, Washington, D.C., and the Caribbean.

ZOM's focus on multi-family development has resulted in the company's selection as one of the top multi-family development companies in the United States. ZOM's current portfolio of commercial assets includes 22,500 apartment units and has generated over $1 billion in revenue, including the development of the National Mall, Capitol Center for the Arts, and the Capitol.
