Redefining Friendships

•Some time we have/need to separate so that we can re-evaluate and redefine your needs in a friendship.

i. e. you've matured, and your needs has changed no longer a little girl, now a women, mother, wife, single, employee, co worker, professional or religious beliefs.

•If you are not willing to admit that your friendship is a relationship worth committing to then, you're only having relations.

As women we truly know the devastation of relations without the ship. In other words eventually it's doing down.
