Insurance adjusters work for insurance companies.

Public adjusters work for you. Having an experienced adjuster on your side makes all the difference.

Although insurance company adjusters are under legal obligation to assess damages fairly, things can be overlooked. It is an established fact that claims handled by public adjusters result in substantially higher payouts. Insurance companies are in the business of making money, limiting financial exposure in claims is part of their business model.

The claims process can be overwhelming and confusing. It makes sense to have an expert advocate on your behalf when dealing with large sums of money. Our services include a comprehensive appraisal of damages, negotiation with the insurance companies, and arrangement of settlements, all with our customer's interests in mind.
