RE: 2nd Chance Finance Servicemark and Specimens

Dear Ms. Causseaux:

Pursuant to our conversation of April 6, 1995, enclosed are three specimens of the servicemark "2nd Chance Finance." As we discussed, the use of the servicemark "2nd Chance Finance" in the index of advertisers for the Pinellas/Hillsborough County Auto Mart magazine is a form of advertising and as such, may be submitted as a specimen.

At this time, the servicemark registration application for "2nd Chance Finance" should be complete. Thus, I look forward to receiving the registration certificate in the near future.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

COHRS, McQUEEN & FORD, P.A.

We have also enclosed a copy of the Servicemark Registration that was issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office for the mark "Second Chance Finance". The class of goods and services for which the mark has been registered is retail automobile outlet services. The registration was issued on October 26, 1993, and bears number 1,801,235.

The Application for Refund from the State of Florida that you forwarded to us with your most recent rejection of the enclosed applications has not been executed at this time. We will request the appropriate refund, if any, upon the final conclusion of this service mark registration process.
