Recruiting For A Match Made In Heaven...

There is no doubt about it, finding the right employee for a position is critical for the success of a business. When recruiting for a new employee, you have to be sure that the person has the right experience and skill level to get the job done. They must also have the ambition and desire to succeed in their position. Finding the right match for a position can lead to the overall growth and profitability of an organization, so the decision is not one to be taken lightly.

At Associate Staffing And Placement, Inc., we have dedicated our careers to helping companies make that right match. Our staffing service has worked within the Central Florida area for ten years refining and perfecting our recruitment and screening process to ensure that we are able to find exactly the person that you are looking for!

Once we have an overall understanding of your requirements, we utilize our network of over 100 recruiting sources to find candidates that are a potential match for you.

Our recruitment is a very specialized and comprehensive program designed to meet the needs of our clients.

We screen through hundreds of resumes of potential applicants per week. Once a resume is selected, the applicant is contacted for a telephone screening. From there, qualified candidates are invited into the office for our complete interview. An interview with ASAP typically takes two to three hours. We spend a great deal of time with each candidate to ensure that you are meeting with only the most professional and qualified applicants available in today's job market. The interview consists of an extensive application, a thorough battery of computer skills testing and a face to face interview with a staffing specialist. Our office has a combined total of over 30 years within the staffing industry!

When it comes to the overall success of your organization, don't take a chance with your recruitment. Take a moment to contact our office and find out how our service can help you. It is important to note that there is no fee to you unless we are able to provide you with the candidate that you want to hire—there is no risk to you to contact the professionals that will find the perfect match for you!

Solutions For Today's Economy

These days, everyone in business is closely watching the economy and waiting to see what happens while we all hope for the best. During this time of "cautious optimism", a staffing agency can be a tremendous asset to a company. When you need extra help within your office, but hesitate to commit to a full time hire, our agency can provide you with the help that you need to ensure that you maintain your productivity. Whether it is a very short term project when some extra hands can be helpful, or a more ongoing need, we have candidates that are skilled, screened and ready to go! You are billed a hourly fee for the time an employee works.

There are no additional costs and you can be sure that the employees have been tested and are qualified for their duties. It is a great way to maintain a professional staff without additional employment costs! Contact our office at 407-277-2733 and see how cost effective temporary staffing really is!
