To Whom It May Concern:

I called your office on July 15, 1998 after receiving my second notice to file my Annual Report. I explained to the person that I had never received the first Annual Report due to a problem with the mail delivery in the complex my shop is located. She told me to attach this letter to the Annual Report I am sending in now and the penalty for late filing would be abated. Therefore, I respectfully submit this Annual Report, along with my check for $150.00.

Thank you for allowing me this courtesy.

Sincerely,

David Hall
