Re: Annual Report

To Whom It May Concern:

After my accountant reviewed my records, she questioned me about my annual report filing for the last two years because she didn't see any checks being paid to your agency. I informed her I hadn't received any reports from you to file. She immediately called your office to find out why I didn't receive my reports. Come to find out they were going to my old address and they weren't forwarded to me. The agent told her to file a corporation reinstatement form and send a $300 check with it, explaining what happened. Enclosed you will find check # 3865 in the amount of $300.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter
