Mr. Hunlap

First let me tell you I appreciate the fact that you are willing to consider waving the late fee on the corporate annual report. As I explained to you on the phone we discovered in April of 1996 that my wife had cancer. As of today she is 15 months past her bone marrow transplant and is currently perfectly healthy. The reason I ask you to consider waving the late fee on the annual report is due to the fact that we weren't able to file on time ourselves and due to some financial responsibilities we have had to sell the company. I thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely, (outgoing)
Brett Jorner - owner

Enclosed in the regular filing fee of $150.00
If it ends up you're not capable of waving the penalty amount, just let me know and we will do our best to pay the additional $400.00 in a timely fashion.
