Statement of Reasonable Cause and Transmittal of Articles of Amendment

in re: Northside Chiropractic Clinic, P.A.
Doc. No.: V06021

Dear Ms. Smith,

We recently sent you Articles of Amendment to amend the name and address of the above named corporation. You returned the amendment because the corporation had apparently been dissolved due to the non-filing and payment of the 2003 UBR (copy of your letter attached.) We have enclosed herewith a completed "Corporate Reinstatement" form, along with a check for $150.00 and humbly request that you consider the following explanation for the non-filing as reasonable cause sufficient for the waiver of the penalties.

Dr. Rhodes sold all the assets of his practice (but not the corporation itself) early in 2003. He retains the corporation to collect on the installment note and conduct further business. The purchasers of the practice have been negligent in forwarding the mail to Dr. Rhodes. Accordingly, he never received his 2003 UBR. Quite frankly, none of us ever thought about it until we filed the Articles of Amendment. Certainly Dr. Rhodes never would have failed to remit the UBR and annual fee if he had received it. We respectfully request that you allow the reinstatement of this corporation and waive the penalties so that this inadvertant oversight does not result in the dire Federal Income Tax consequences that would ensue if the corporation were liquidated (due to the existence of the installment note.)

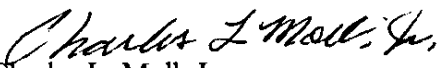

With this filing, we are also re-submitting the Articles of Amendment (and another check for $35.00) to change the name and address of The Corporation. This is in order to avoid confusion as the purchasers are doing business under the old name as a d/b/a.

Ms. Smith, we again request that you allow Reinstatement, without any penalty, as this was completely an oversight, born from the confusion following the sale of the business, but most of all, because it was out of Dr. Rhodes hands as he never received his 2003 UBR. A corporate liquidation at this time would accelerate all the gain on the installment note which would result in tens of thousands of dollars in Federal Income Taxes due, without having received any of the cash with which to pay the tax.

We thank you for your consideration in this matter. If there are any further questions or if I may be of further assistance, please call me at (904) 398-2011.

Sincerely yours,

Charles L. Moll, Jr.
