RE: Document # V12040

Enclosed please find a web-copy of our 2003 For Profit Corporation Uniform Business Report. Our business was sold on July 15, 2002 and we have received no forms or correspondence from your office. We did notify you of our new address after our sale. Meanwhile, the new owner who is now at our old location has forwarded no documents of any kind to us and has not been forthcoming with any information he may have received pertaining to our corporation. For this reason we are sending our check in the amount of 150.00 to continue the active status of our corporation and are requesting a waiver of the 400.00 late penalty. We have completed the lines for address changes on the UBR form and trust that next year we will receive our forms and be able to submit them in a timely manner. Our past history will show that we have never had a late filing.

Sincerely yours,

Emma Imhoff
