May 31, 2002

Dear Sir or Madam:

I just got off the phone with the Division of Corporations and I was instructed to write this letter.

My company is in a "dormant status". I have not had a client since the first quarter of the year 2000. I have not paid salary since the first quarter of the year 2000.

I am presently a professor at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.
It is my desire to begin consulting at some time in the future.
I do not wish to have my Corporation dissolved.

I thought that I could keep the Corporation open, but in a dormant status as you do with the federal government.

I was instructed by the Division of Corporations in my tele-conference that I should Send in a check for $150.00 and that would keep the corporation 'alive.'

I thank you for allowing me to send in my fee at this date.

With no income coming in at this time a $400 late fee would dissolve the corporation.

Respectfully,

F. S. Gallup
