ATTENTION: Sean Toner
Supervisor

Reference our telephone conversation of this date concerning the tardiness of our Corporate renewal for Marion Metal Works, Inc. and Seminole Fire Apparatus, Inc.. As was stated to you, our renewal forms were inadvertently placed in with other "tax type" papers and forwarded to our Daytona Beach CPA. This occurred in a time frame prior to the latter part of March. Our CPA finished the final statements and the extended tax papers and returned all our materials including the two Corporate packets the third week in June. As soon as discovery was made, a submission was made immediately. The two forms were returned to us and a penalty fee of $300.00 was requested to renew the two Corporations.

We are disappointed our CPA did not assist us by either contacting us or returning the renewals immediately, but he had set them aside as not being relative to his particular tax job and there they remained past the corporate renewal deadline. Not being in our possession during this period put us at a distinct disadvantage.

Your assistance is requested in processing a request to waive the two corporation delinquent filing fees
