1. Enclosed please find your form, "Officer / Director Resignation", filled out for John C. Duncan, Jr., resigning from A-Nutemp, Inc. Also enclosed is the filing fee check for $35.00.
2. Enclosed please find your letter, dated July 8, 1999, that was incorrectly mailed to A-Nutemp, Inc. John C. Duncan, Jr. has resigned from A-Nutemp, Inc. His new company, Associated Pump & Equipment dba Associated Building Services, is the company filing all forms / certificates and therefore should be the company that they are returned to.

With this enclosure, we are resubmitting John C. Duncan, Jr.'s original resignation that was mailed to your department with a check for $8.75. These items were also mistakenly returned to A-Nutemp, Inc.

3. Included in our original package was also a request for "Certificate of Status Reflecting Officers and Directors" for and from Associated Pump & Equipment dba Associated Building Services, also with a check for $8.75 (Associated Air Products check # 031927). The check was cashed and an older, unedited edition was returned to the home of Walter C. Dickinson, President of Associated Pump & Equipment dba Associated Building Services, but John C. Duncan, Jr.'s name was not added to it.(?) We have paid to have his name added and we are again requesting the documentation showing this addition.

Please send all certificates / confirmation / acknowledgement to:

Associated Air Products, Inc.

PLEASE DO NOT MAIL TO A-NUTEMP, INC.!

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
