Dear Sirs,

As requested, I am writing this letter as an explanation as to why we did not file our 2002 Uniform Business Report on time. Lindsey Dees, my wife, has handled the office for years, and to my knowledge always paid the UBR on time. Towards the end of last year she started suffering from depression and as a result several accounts were neglected. A couple of weeks ago she ran off to California and abandoned the office. While taking over her office duties we found these documents that had not been filed with the state. We are enclosing the $150.00 for the corporation as instructed by your office and appreciate your waiving the penalties for the late filing.

Sincerely,

John E. Dees, Jr.
