Re: Holston Properties and Development, inc.
Document # V21275

I am writing you concerning the above Company. After speaking with Tyrone in the reinstatement Department, he recommended that I write you a letter explaining the circumstances of this filing along with a new application and new check for the fees due.

On April 10, 2001, we sent out two separate business reports and two separate checks in the amount of $150.00 each. One report was for Westmoreland Inn, Inc. and the other was for Holston Properties and Development, Inc. They were check numbers 1002 and 1003, respectively.

In talking about this matter with Tyrone, he said that the Westmoreland Filing was posted, but not the Holston filing. Both were sent in the same envelope on April 10, 2001. Evidently, the Holston report was thrown away with the envelope once it was received in the filing section or lost in the shuffle of papers.

Anyhow, we are sending a reissued check and a new report and trust that you will not insist on the late filing fee. We sent the reports out on the same day in April, well in advance of the due date.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Bob Holston
