RE: SPECIAL THINGS, INC.

Dear Sir or Madam:

In regard to the subject matter, please be advised that I represent this corporation.

I received the enclosed Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation form and did not receive the original 2001 UBR form nor any subsequent follow up notice as I receive on a regular basis for other corporations that I represent.

The client is not sure if the accountant for the corporation received the initial form, but based upon the notice of administrative dissolution form that I received as resident agent that would indicate that no such return was filed by anyone.

Therefore, I am submitting the completed application for reinstatement with our Trust Account Check No. 012877 payable to the order of Florida Department of State in the sum of $150.00 representing the amount that would be required if the payment was made on a current basis. Your records will reflect that this corporation has always paid its annual corporate stock tax payments and submitted its filing on a timely basis.

The reinstatement form has our current address, although our previous address was 3990 Sheridan Street, Hollywood, Florida. The forwarding address on that old address to our new address has since expired which may be part of the problem.

In any event, this letter is a request to accept the regular payment as the reinstatement fees present a real financial hardship for this small beauty salon.

Thank you for your cooperation in connection with this matter.

Very truly yours,

HAGEN & HAGEN, P.A.
