Dear Sir:

I just received a "notice of intent to dissolve" post card, forwarded from my old address to my new home.

I did not receive the "2004 for profit corporation annual report" form. In April 8, 2004, I moved to the new home. Before and after moving, I packed and unpack. I was so busy and did not pay attention to whether I receive the form or not. Because I did not receive the form, it is the reason that I did not send back the form.

I hope that you would accept this good reason for not sending back the report. Enclosed please find a check of $150.00. I am sure that, in the next year I will send back the report on time.

Would you please change the new address. (Please see the above.)

Thank you so much for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Jennie Lee
President
