Dear Mr Toner:

As per our conversation on July 22, 1998, please accept our Annual Report with the check #106499 in the amount of $150.00. As I explained over the phone, our former Controller left abruptly in the middle of June. In the mist of recovering from the financial complications he left us with, I went through his desk and discovered the Annual Corporation Report. This document was never presented to the corporation for payment. Evidently he received it in December 97, and never turned it over to me for payment.

We have never been late on filing our Annual Report in the last seven years. We respectfully request that the late fee be waived in these extenuating circumstances.

Thank you for your assistance in this mater.

Sincerely,

Sara Vargas
