RE: V34976

To Whom It May Concern,

For several days I have been trying to go on line to get the Annual Report for 2007. I have also tried to go on line to make the payment. Not successful on either. After several days of frustration I decided to seek help from others. The computer repair business that I use said they thought they could help me. Thirty minutes later they gave up. I then tried the General Tax Office here in Leesburg – after another thirty minutes or more she also gave up the effort. However I did ask her to print what little we could bring up, all of which is enclosed. Even my telephone calls to Tallahassee were negative.

I realize that I waited to close to the deadline to pay but, because of heavy medical bills I had no choice. Now, I suppose that because I could not get the form from your website the penalty will apply. This I think is very unfair but, whatever happens you have the last word.

Yours truly,

Charles A. Leedom
