To Whom It May Concern:

I am sending this request to hopefully eliminate and abate the late filing fee on my corporation annual report. The address on the card was misspelled and mistakenly put into my neighbor's mailbox. Therefore, I did not receive the postcard in a timely manner and was unable to file the proper paperwork by the May 1st deadline. I hope that these events will be taken into account when reviewing the amount due to the Division of Corporations. I have marked the date on my subsequent calendar for 2006 so that this late filing does not happen again. Thank you in advance for any help that you can provide my corporation.

Sincerely,

John Zehnder
