To whom it may concern,

I called your office to discuss my situation and I was instructed to send a check with the designated amount and to put in writing my situation.

Please find my check for $300 to cover my incorporation fees for the year 2000 & 2001. The reason it was not sent in last year was because of a tragedy with our CPA who used to take care of these matters. Wayne Erler who had been our CPA for several years unexpectedly committed suicide last year. Because Wayne took care of most of our administrative responsibilities it created many challenges for us that we are still overcoming.

We presently have a new CPA and expect everything to be handled timely and accurately. I respectfully ask that the penalties to be reinstated be waived considering the unusual and tragic circumstances.

Sincerely,

Alan Narz
