To whom it may concern,

We have just received a second notice regarding filing of a corporation annual report. Since no first notice had been received, we called to protest the imposition of a late filing penalty. We talked to Gina and explained that this is the second year in a row that you have assessed a penalty for our not responding to a notice that we had not received. Last year we chose to pay the additional fee, but this is becoming an annual event that is quite unacceptable. We hereby request that the late penalty be waived, and we are enclosing full payment of the standard filing fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00).

Sincerely,

Jeff Pearson
