FURTHER RESOLVED, that complete liquidation and dissolution of Delar, Inc. be effected under the following Plan of Complete Liquidation and Dissolution:

PLAN OF COMPLETE LIQUIDATION AND DISSOLUTION OF DELAR, INC.

1. Delar, Inc., a Florida corporation, hereinafter called the "company," has issued and outstanding 100 shares of common stock, of $1.00 par value per share. The company will cease the active conduct of its business and wind up its affairs, within the meaning of Subtitle A, Chapter 1C, Paragraph II A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and will dissolve, liquidate and distribute all of its assets in complete liquidation, less any retained to meet claims on or before December 31, 1999.

2. The principal assets of the company consist primarily of computer software, plastic injection molds and manufacturing equipment subject to leases, and a promissory note. There are no material liabilities of the company.

3. The officers and director of the company are authorized to consummate transfers and conveyances of all or any portions of the properties of the company, on such terms and conditions as they in their discretion shall deem beneficial to the company, including the assumption by the purchaser or purchasers of any or all liabilities of the company. The officers are specifically authorized to sell the assets listed on Exhibit A to Brown Leasing and Service Company for the prices shown on Exhibit A, and to sell the note for the amount of the unpaid balance.

4. The Director from time to time may authorize one or more distributions of property of the company, in cash or in kind, or in a series of distributions in complete liquidation, retaining such assets as they may deem necessary to meet claims or liabilities of the company, and to continue the operation of such properties of the company as have not been sold at the time of any such distribution.

5. Prior to December 31, 1999 such of the assets of the company as have not previously been distributed and in the opinion of its directors need no longer be retained to meet claims or liabilities, shall be distributed to the holders of the company's common stock.

6. Each of the foregoing distributions in complete liquidation shall be in exchange solely for, and in complete redemption and cancellation of, and in payment for, all of the outstanding common stock of the company; the shareholders shall surrender their certificates for such shares for recording thereon receipt of distributions prior to the final distribution, and shall surrender such certificates for cancellation upon receipt of the final distribution herein authorized.

7. The officers and director of the company shall proceed immediately with the voluntary dissolution of the company under the laws of the State of Florida, to be effective December 31, 1999.

8. The officers and director of the company are authorized, empowered and directed to execute and file all documents which they deem necessary or advisable to carry out the purposes and intentions of this plan, including Articles of Dissolution under the laws of the State of Florida, and information returns on Treasury Department Forms 966, 1096 and 1099, together with final Federal and Florida income tax returns and the information required by applicable regulations.

9. The officers and directors of the company are authorized, empowered and directed to do any and all things in its name and behalf which they may deem necessary or advisable in order to carry out the purposes and intentions of this plan. They shall be held harmless by the company for any action under this plan taken in good faith, and any expense of liability so incurred by them shall be that of the company.

10. It is intended that this Plan of Complete Liquidation and Dissolution meet the requirements of Section 331 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.
