This letter is in response to our phone call to your office on August 21, 1998. Enclosed per your instructions, please find a copy of our bank stub showing when our original checks that were sent to your office along with the annual report filing. It has been verified that these checks have not cleared our account. We will be placing a stop payment on them and enclosed are the reissues. It appears that the original documents have lost in the mail and as a result we have sent this to you registered mail return receipt. We thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

١.
