To Whom It May Concern,

These applications and checks were mailed in April. For some unknown reason they were returned to our companies. We have never had a problem with paying these on time in the past. I do not know why these were not filed with the state at the end of April. I am returning these to you to be filed at this time. Please give our companies, S.C.C.S. and Central Florida Resources, consideration in this matter.

Thank You for your attention to this matter,

Robert S. Speer
