RE: Carpet Cleaners Plus, Inc.
V47688

Dear Sean Toner:

I am the new accountant for the above mentioned client. Earlier this year, Mr. Van Cleve was using another accountant. In February of 1999 Mr. Van Cleve made out a check for $150.00 to the Dept. of State to pay for the 1999 Annual Filing Fee. His accountant said that he would mail it out for him because he wanted to make proper copies of the form and check. Mr. Van Cleve assumed that all was taken care of.

Shortly thereafter I became the accountant for Carpet Cleaners Plus, Inc. after he had differences with his prior accountant. We have now recieved this reinstatement application and we're very supprised and annoyed. Apparently, the check and form were never mailed out. As you can see, in prior years all returns were filed timely.

We are now enclosing a check for $150.00 for the 1999 year. It would greatly be appreciated if all penalties be abated due to no fault of the taxpayer. A $600.00 reinstatement fee would be a major hardship at this point, since this was not done purposely, along with the client thinking that the 1999 form & check was mailed out on time. Please accept my clients sincerity in this matter.

If you should have any questions, pleas feel free to contact me.

Thank you,

Salvatore Cossentino
