To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter under the recommendation of the service rep I spoke with on Wednesday, June 30, 1999 and to plead my case for filing the Annual Report late.

I am a one man operation and do all of the filing of tax returns, registrations and applications, etc. by myself. I filed this report in the same folder as all prior year Annual Reports and failed to recognize it as not being payed before this very moment. I received the second notice in the mail today, which is really the only reminder ever received and immediately called your office.

All reports have been filed on a timely basis since 1992. This was honestly an oversight on my part and will not happen again. Please accept my payment of $150.

Best,

Michael Lockwood
