To Whom it May Concern,

I request a waiver of the late fees because I never received a first notice of the annual report. I called to inquire the address in which this first notice was sent and a blank one be sent. I was told that the address that you have is the correct one, but I still did not receive the first notice. This is the second year in a row that I have not received this notice. I did receive the blank one that I requested and then the second notice after that. This is something that needs to be looked into. I will be waiting to hear from you on this matter.

Sincerely,

R.E. Habegger
President
