Dear Sirs:

We never received our first notice for our Profit Corporation Annual Report. The first notice we received was the Second notice form. We spoke at length with your office, mailed in the required correspondence and our check for $150.00, the specified amount with the individual on the phone.

We have been incorporated since 1992. Is there any further information you need from us at this time in order for our report to be processed?

Thank you for your assistance,

Lori Reid
