To whom it may concern:

Today, June 14, 2000, I received from the post office a return of my 2000 Uniform Business Report..

I mailed the form in April but inadvertently forgot to put postage on the envelope. At this time, I was preparing to leave for Milwaukee, Wisconsin to help my mother who was to have surgery on April 18. To say things were a little bit hectic is putting it mildly.

I spoke to Jane through your office as soon as I received this return and she told me to send all the paperwork including the post office paperwork back with this letter of explanation. The remittance envelope has the post offices stamp on it dated in April.

I hope this will be acceptable as the additional $400 would be a hardship upon our family.

Respectfully,

Jo A. Knuth
