Re: Sheila Freedman, Inc.

Dear Sir:

Please be advised that I am the Registered Agent for the above referenced corporation. As such, I have received, from my client, the 2nd Notice for the 1 97 corporate report which indicates that a fee of $550.00 is now due.

This letter is to request a forbearance of the additional late fees since my client never received the 1st notice. The address listed as the "principal place of business" is the Arvida Company development office at Neston, Florida. This location is an extremely large real ϵ tate development office with numerous employees and department. As such, the 1st notice was presumed to have been lost in the mai and not received by Sheila Freedman. The 2nd notice was subsequently received in the inter-office mail thereby prompting this request.

Please contact my office as soon as possible with your response to this forbea ance request. Since Ms. Freedman is an independent contractor operating as a real estate salesperson, the continuation of her corporation is extremely important.

Your prompt response is appreciated.

Very Cluly yours,

Garry C. Faske Attorney at Law
