During the month of July 2003, we received a notification saying that we had not filed our annual report.

At that time we called your department and explained that we had not received a prior notice and you instructed us to mail a check for $ 150.00 and a completed UBR – see copy of letter dated July 21, 2003 and copy of the check. However, we received a notice of dissolution from your department.

We called your department yesterday, October 20, and you asked us to write a letter with this explanation.

Please make the necessary corrections so that the company can be reinstated.

Sincerely yours,

Felix Ortega MD, PA
