re: Stukely Investments Inc.
FEI: 650349874

To whom it may concern,

I have been informed recently by my CPA that my corporation was dissolved because annual reports were not filed for 1998, 1999 and 2000.

It is a fact that I have changed the mailing address in April of 1997. This included a forwarding service for one year.

I do not understand why your forms were not received. I assumed that some changes resulted in not being required to file these anymore.

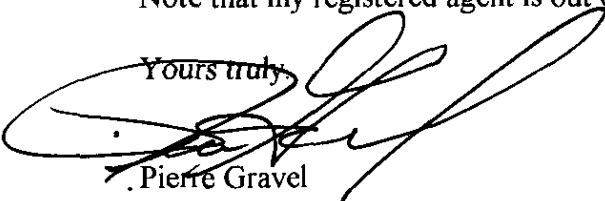

In addition, if you had mailed these to either the principal address or to my registered agent, it would have been sent to me.

I have no problem in paying the normal fee (I believe it is $150 per year) to correct the situation, but I believe the fees to reinstate, mentioned on your reinstate form 203, are extremely excessive and unjustified in the circumstances.

I request that you take into consideration that this is a small corporation, not generating any profits and with limited financial means; and reduce the fees required to the standard annual amount.

Note that my registered agent is out on vacation and that his signature will follow shortly.

Yours truly,

Pierre Gravel
