To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to the Florida Department of State concerning the annual fee for the Uniform Business Report for Best Blinds Interiors, Inc. Corporation (V58754). The annual fee for this corporation is the amount of $150.00. Because of personal reasons we have had to close the corporation for five months. Ramon Montes De Oca who is president of the corporation had been out of town. In the meantime his father was in charge of the corporation but he has been really sick that we thought he was going to die. He is been having liver and kidney problems where he needs to find a donor and he has not been able to find one. As you can see for the past five months this corporation has been temporary closed without any supervision.

This is a very small company and we don't have employees that could take care of all this paper work while Ramon Montes De Oca was out of town. While all this was going on we didn't realized that the Annual Uniform Business Report had to be filled out and send before the month of May and now we had been charge with a late fee of $400 that we really can't afford to pay. I will like for you to take a moment of your busy day and help us with this problem. As you might have realized this company is not doing very well and is very hard for us to pay $400. I will like to ask you to please consider this letter to help us in any way you can. We have always paid all our fees to The Florida Department of State and this being such a hard year was really hard to keep everything under control. Thank you in advance for anything that you can help us with we will be very appreciate of any decision that you make.

Sincerely,

Ramon Montes De Oca
President
